

babi[®] delicious

highest feed intake

Achieving the best possible post-weaning performances is essential in the modern swine husbandry. Certainly in situations with low weaning weights and a low voluntary feed intake of piglets, an extremely tasteful feed is necessary to unlock genetic potential of piglets. The resulting high feed intake will prevent the lagging behind of small piglets. For this reason, Nuscience developed the Babi[®] Delicious feeding line.

